Army 350,000 Strong Can Be Increased To Over Million In Three Days

Calling Up Of Recruits Proceeding Apace

DOWNING STREET "WAR COUNCIL" HAS IMMEDIATE CALMING EFFECT

London, September 14.
IN CONNECTION WITH INFORMATION GAINED FROM THE CZECH LEGATION, that although no mobilisation order has actually been given in Czechoslovakia such an order has been considered. It is pointed out that the Czech Army, about 350,000 strong could be expanded to over 1,000,000 within about three days.

Those in touch telephonically with Central Europe state that last night's meeting at No. 10 Downing Street was described as a "war council" and this had an immediate calming effect in Prague and elsewhere.—(Reuter).

Prague, September 14.

Although no official decree of general mobilisation has been issued it none less appears certain that the individual calling up of recruits is proceeding apace. FRANCE TAKES ALL PRECAUTIONS

Paris, Sept. 14.

Although official quarters deny the report in the Daily Mail that telephonic conversation took place last night between M. Daladier and Mr. Chamberlain concerning consultations between the General Staffs of the two countries in connection with the alleged mobilisation of the British Fleet, the French Government continues to take all precautions in view of the possibility of war.

All public demonstrations in the whole of France, including a greatly advertised Communist meeting, have been prohibited by order of the Minister of the Interior. All ministries are busy drawing up measures destined to ensure the maintenance of order and undisturbed continuance of economic activity in the event of a European conflict. Among these measures are several concerned with air raid precautions.—(Transocean).

London, September 14.

The Daily Herald, in its late edition this morning, publishes a report which asserts that the British Government addressed a Note to the Reich Government last night which once more precisely defines the British attitude and warns the German Government of the danger of a world war in which Britain must stand on the side of France.

The British Government, moreover, allegedly pointed out in the Note that any solution is only possible as long as all sides concerned show the necessary conciliatory spirit.

An official confirmation of the Daily Herald report which is published by no other paper than the Labour organ could not be obtained, however, for the time being.—(Transocean).

CHINA'S MILLIONS ARE RALLYING MORE CLOSELY

Protracted War Will Mean Economic Disaster For Japan

Hankow, September 14.

Dealing with protraction of the war in China, the Pravda in an editorial declares that Japan is experiencing great difficulties, confronted as she is with limited man-power, lack of raw materials, financial exhaustion, and inability of her heavy industry to cope with the increasing requirements of the war, according to a Tass report.

As a result of the war being continued longer than expected, the Japanese Government has to increase the burden of taxation in order to meet the huge war expenditures. The protracted war will bring to Japan economic disaster and bankruptcy.

While anti-war sentiments are growing in scope and intensity among the Japanese army and people, China's 450,000,000, vis-a-vis the brutalities and violations on the part of the Japanese militarists, are rallying over closer in the struggle for their national existence, adds the journal.

One can be sure, the Pravda goes on to say, that in the present stage of the war the Chinese fronts will become stabilized. The Japanese troops will not be able to

TOKYO SAYS: COMINTERN PULLING STRINGS IN PRAGUE

Tokyo, September 14.

A statement, issued today by a Foreign Office spokesman details Japan's attitude in the present situation and says that Herr Hitler's address at Nuremberg set forth the basic principle underlying German foreign policy.

It constituted a "genuine expression of ardent patriotism which has taken Europe by storm," the statement declares. "What the Fuehrer demands concerning the Sudeten problem, in a word, is a solution of justice for which our nation has nothing but profound admiration and sympathy."

Asked whether this statement meant that Japan would go to war immediately Germany or Italy were involved, the spokesman said that he would leave the interpretation to the questioner.

The statement goes on to accuse the Comintern of taking advantage of the situation from the Treaty of St. Germain, whereby the seed of subsequent implications of the Czechoslovakia racial problem is planted.

For the present complication of the Sudeten question the responsibility rests largely on the machinations of the Comintern which is pulling strings behind the Czech Government, the statement declares.—(Continued on Page 2)

In its desperate attempt to Bolshevise Europe, the Comintern is doing everything to prevent a peaceful settlement of the racial problem in Czechoslovakia. The Comintern's machination for the Bolshevization of Europe is exactly similar to that of China in East Asia.

"We can readily see the ways of the Comintern in Europe," continues the statement. "In view of the fact that the Comintern's intrigue is to blame for the present European crisis, we hope that the great Powers such as Britain and France will take definite cognizance of it and act accordingly for the sake of peace."—(Reuter).

"ONE OF GREATEST CURSES OF OFFICIAL LIFE IN FAR EAST IS SQUEEZE," SAYS JUDGE

Sergeant Telfer Gives Evidence

A commotion was created outside the Court after the case, when the wife of the second defendant fainted and went into a fit.

The jury retired for a period of a little over 45 minutes and returned with a unanimous verdict of guilty against each of the defendants on both charges.

Mr. D'Almada pleaded for leniency on behalf of Telfer, remarking that he possessed a good Military and Police record.

His Lordship before passing sentence said to the accused:—

"You have been, in my opinion, rightly convicted on each of the two counts on which you have been indicted. Instead of being protectors of the people, you acted as oppressors. One of the greatest curses of official life in the Far East is squeeze. Counsel has made a plea for leniency on your behalf, but considering the seriousness of the case, I feel that I should not be doing my duty if I were not to pass a severe sentence in each case."

Telfer in Box

In the witness-box Telfer yesterday told the Court that he joined the local Police force in September, 1938, having previously been in the Royal Scots and the Corps of Military Police. He was promoted Lance-Sergeant in December, 1937 and in February this year was attached to the Emergency Unit, Kowloon, under Sergeant McLeod. On occasions when Sergeant McLeod was absent, he took charge of the Unit, and in the absence of any orders he was to exercise his discretion.

Mr. D'Almada. Even when taking orders from McLeod as to the district you were to patrol, can you still exercise your discretion?

Sometimes he gave me no orders. We more or less worked together and there was no such thing as an officer in charge. From time to time he gave me orders but not always.

On May 8 he gave you instructions where to go?—He mentioned Kowloon City in such a matter of fact way that I did not take it as an order.

HIS REASONS

Irrespective of whether you regarded McLeod's instructions as an order or otherwise, somehow or other you decided to go to Yau-mat and Mongkok instead of Kowloon City?—Yes. My reason for so doing was because Kowloon City was a very quiet district and as I have made previous arrests in Yau-mat I decide to go there with the sole object of getting a case.

Getting a case, would that benefit you?—It would show that I have been conscientious in my work.

Did it occur to you that by so doing you were disobeying orders?—I did not take it as an order and so I did not think it would do any harm.

SHARED ROOM

Continuing, Telfer said that he shared a room with McLeod, and on his return from duty that morning McLeod asked him if he had been to Kowloon City. He replied that he had not, whereupon McLeod said he had entered in his morning reports that Telfer had, and that he did not want to change it.

Telfer then said, that it was up to him. His reason for saying so was to save McLeod the trouble of making out another report. McLeod usually completed his report the night before, leaving a little space in case something happened in the meantime.

Referring to the morning of May 11, Telfer said that he took his squad on Japanese protective patrol at 9 a.m. instead of the usual hour of 8 a.m. because of the non-arrival of the van. He went to Temple Street in the course of his patrol. He passed through there practically every day ever since he had been with the Unit.

On arriving at Temple Street he ordered his men to search and posted another in Arthur Street so as to prevent any person from escaping through the back way. After about 20 minutes, Chief Inspector Smith and Inspector Carey came on the scene, and his squad was ordered back to the Yau-mat Police Station.

NO CONVERSATION

Did you have any conversation with any member of the mah-jongg schools?—No.

Nor to your knowledge did any of your squad?—No.

Mr. D'Almada: You have heard evidence being given of what happened in Temple Street on May 9. Is that correct?—Not correct, although I do not deny I was there.

Was there any demand for money made by you that morning?

—Certainly not.

To your knowledge did any of your men make any such demand?

—No.

Were there many people about?

—Quite a number.

NO AUTHORITY

Did any one stop them from entering the schools?—No, we had no authority to do so.

Did you or any of your men assault anybody?—No.

Your sole object of going to Temple Street was to search?—Yes.

How often were searches of this kind successful in Yau-mat?—Over a period of a month I was successful three times.

Ever been successful in Kowloon City?—No, but we usually went there in a van because it was too far.

Cross-examined by Mr. Whyatt, Telfer said he was not aware that the reason why McLeod sent him to Kowloon City was because there had been numerous larcenies in that district.

Mr. Whyatt: If that was the reason, do you agree that it was a most important duty that you should have gone there?—Quite.

And it was a neglect of duty if you failed to carry out that order?—Yes, if I was aware of the reason.

"A DEFINITE ORDER"

You have heard your superior officers say that it would be inexcusable to break an order?—If one does not receive a definite order one cannot break it.

Do you say it was not a definite order?—I do.

Are you suggesting that everything McLeod wrote in that duty list is worthless and meaningless?—No.

Then what duties in the list do you say have some meaning?—He does not sign the list.

I put it to you that what McLeod wrote in the duty list is an order?—I do not call it so.

Assuming that McLeod posted the duty list on the board, do you regard that as an order to be obeyed or not?—It all depends because I have been allowed to use my discretion.

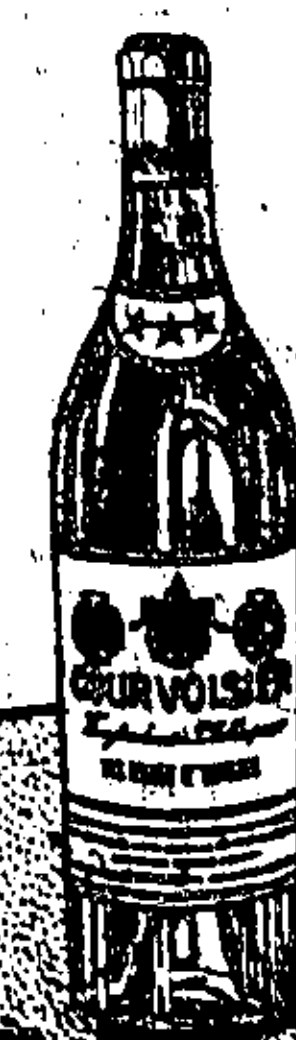

In what circumstances do you regard a duty given by McLeod and posted on the board as a binding order?—To save argument I will agree with you about it.

MAN HANDED OVER TO POLICE

Believed To Be Insane

Upon arrival here of the S.S. Islami from Saigon at 12.30 p.m. yesterday, a Chinese passenger, Luk Tai was handed over to the police by the ship's officials.

The cause of this action was the mental condition of the passenger who had embarked at the Indo-China port and was on his way home to the North. Tai was believed to be insane, though not violent, as he constantly removed his clothing and destroyed same.

There appear to be no relatives of the man in the Colony.

DEFRAUDING COLONY'S REVENUE

Chan Choi of the Hing Cheong Yu firm of No. 380 Tai Nam Street, was fined a total sum of $30 on two counts of putting insufficient stamps on receipts for $70.11 and $58.64 issued to the Tung Sing Loong shop on May 26.

Tam Wai-mul, of the Yung Hang shop, No. 165, Fuk Wah Street, and Pun Sin, residing at No. 41, Spring Garden Lane, were each fined $20 for not stamping receipts for $23.50 and $25.60 respectively.

For splitting receipts into two for sums over $20, Fan Chuen, of the Chuen On Long shop, and Ip Yau-chun of the Hung Fat firm, were each fined $25.

Appearing on a similar offence, Chan Wan-po, of the Kwong Chun Cheung shop, No. 146, Wing Lok Street, was fined $50.

HAWKER TURNS THIEF

With four previous convictions for theft from the person and one for aiding and abetting in a larceny Tai Chun-lung, aged 27, unemployed, was charged before Mr. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday with stealing a purse containing 40 cents Canton money, and a silver toothpick from a 78-year-old travelling trader named Shum Luk in Queen's Road Central.

Tsui pleaded guilty and said: "I was a hawker, but all my capital was paid in fines and so I yielded to temptation."

Sentence of six months' hard labour was imposed.

FRESH SALADS

Never fail to serve salads every day to your family.

Here are some mixed ones to put into the salad bowl. First, eggs and tomato. This is good with cold beef.

Ingredients: 1 young lettuce, 1 lb. small tomatoes, 3 hard-boiled eggs, mayonnaise, 1 thinly sliced cucumber.

Shred the lettuce and arrange in a salad bowl, leave the heart for decoration. If the tomatoes are very small, place them in a ring, little way from the edge so that the lettuce shows.

Pour over the mayonnaise and garnish with slices of hard-boiled egg and finely chopped parsley.

ORANGE AND MINT

Serve this with slices of cold lamb.

Ingredients: 2 oranges, 1 tablespoonful caster sugar, 1 tablespoonful of young chopped mint, watercress.

Arrange half the watercress on the bottom of a salad bowl. Peel the oranges, remove the pith and cut into thin slices. Sprinkle with the sugar and chopped mint, pour over the salad dressing and garnish with watercress and sprigs of mint.

NUTS AND FRUIT

Healthful, delicious and nourishing.

Ingredients: 1 lb. chopped Brazil nuts if obtainable, or walnuts or almonds, 1 lb. sultanas (washed and dried), 2 eating apples, half an endive, or mustard and cress, 2 bananas.

Chop the nuts and apples coarsely, and mix them with some mayonnaise.

Place in a dish with a border of endive (or mustard and cress) and sliced banana on top.

CREAMED CRABMEAT

1 1/2 tbsp. butter
2 tbsp. flour
Dash pepper
1/4 tsp. salt
1 cup boiling water
1 cup Carnation Milk
1 1/2 pts. canned crabmeat
1 tbsp. lemon juice

Prepare a white sauce of first six ingredients. Remove bones from crabmeat and season with lemon juice. Add to the white sauce and heat thoroughly. Serve on toast or in patty shells. Serves 12.

TWO GOOD SWEETS

A perfect sweet, often of the cream variety, can bring distinction to the simplest meal. Housewives are finding that caramel as a sauce is growing in popularity, but sometimes experience a little difficulty in giving it a professional touch. Here are a few hints from an expert on how to achieve a good and flowing supply of caramel running over a plain mould.

HARD CARAMEL

After considerable experience so far as this particular problem is concerned, I would suggest the following solution.

It is correct for the caramel to harden immediately it is put into the basin, but in order that it may flow in the form of syrup when the cream is turned out these points will be helpful.

COLD PRALINE SOUFFLE

Required:—3 eggs, 1 lb. sugar, 1/2 oz. gelatine, 1 pint cream, 1 lemon, 3 oz. French almond rock, a few almonds.

Whisk egg yolks, sugar and lemon juice over hot water till thick and creamy, then cool. Whip the cream till medium stiff. Fold the egg mixture into this.

Whip egg whites stiffly and fold in, add the French almond rock pounded in a mortar, and lastly

TUNA FISH A LA KING

2 tbsp. butter
1 green pepper, shredded
1 hard cooked egg
1 cup chopped mushrooms
3 tbsp. flour
1 cup Carnation Milk
1 cup water
Salt and pepper
1 1/2 cups tuna fish
1 1/2 cup peas

Saute green pepper and mushrooms in butter until tender (about 10 minutes), keeping covered while cooking. Remove mushrooms and pepper and blend flour with the fat. Add the Carnation diluted with the water and cook until the mixture is thickened, stirring constantly to prevent lumping. Place flaked tuna fish, peas, egg, mushrooms, and pepper in top of double boiler. Pour over this the sauce and continue cooking over hot water for 10 minutes. Serve in patty shells or on toast points. Serves 6. Lobster or shrimp may be used instead of tuna fish.

the gelatine dissolved in a little water.

Pour into a souffle dish with a band of paper pinned round the top and decorate with browned almonds finely chopped. If you cannot get French almond rock, burn some sugar to caramel, run it on to a tin, and when cold pound in a mortar.

FOR GALLANTRY IN PALESTINE

Awards Approved By 'The King'

London, Sept. 14.

The London Gazette announces that the King has approved the award, for gallantry and distinguished service in Palestine, of the D. S. O. on Captain O. C. Wingate of the Royal Artillery, of a Bar to the M. C. to Second Lieutenant H. E. N. Bredin, and of the M. C. to Second Lieutenant J. A. Law, both of the Royal Ulster Rifles.

The award to Law is posthumous as he died on September 9 from wounds received in action. (British Wireless).

Dead 35 Minutes, Lived Four Days

Lying "dead" for thirty-five minutes, a surgeon's efforts to revive her failing a twenty-one-year-old married woman "came to life" and lived for ninety-two hours.

Dr. Harist, resident medical officer at Warrington, Lancs., Borough Hospital, said at the inquest recently that the woman, Mrs. Irene Beech, of Back Atherton-street, Warrington, wife of a railway porter, was operated on in the hospital for septicaemia.

The operation had been in progress for five to six minutes when she collapsed, and apparently died. The usual treatment was given, including artificial respiration and injections directly into the heart.

"As there was no response," said the doctor, "I had no alternative but to open the abdomen and massage the heart. After thirty-five minutes, since the heart had ceased beating, I decided to abandon the attempts."

"As I was stitching up the wound a faint heart flutter was noticed so I proceeded in my efforts, and was rewarded by finding the heart again beating normally. We carried on artificial respiration, and eventually respiration was restored."

"Her condition was now quite good and she was returned to bed."

There was no evidence to show that the heart stoppage and subsequent manipulations were contributory factors to the woman's death, he said.

Verdict: Death from natural causes.

IRAQ COMMAND

London, Sept. 14.

The Air Ministry announces the appointment of Air Vice-Marshal J. E. S. Tyssen to be Air Officer Commanding the British Forces in Iraq with effect from September 20. (British Wireless).

Navy Pensioners To Serve Again

The Admiralty desires to re-engage a number of long-service pensioners for shore service only to man observation minefields and similar duties both at home and abroad. (An observation minefield is controlled from the shore, and is used for protecting harbours. About 100 men are required to operate one.)

This official announcement was made on August 31.

Men who have not been discharged to pension for more than five years and who held the ratings of chief petty officer, petty officer, leading seaman, or able seaman may sign on for a period of five years, with the option of re-engaging for one or more similar periods if recommended and, if required.

Nobody will be retained beyond the age of 60.

Provision is made also for men who wish to re-engage for only three years.

RESPONSIBLE POSTS

The posts to be filled entail a certain amount of individual responsibility, and the Admiralty is anxious to secure the services of men of good character and ability.

In addition to enjoying again the full benefits of active service, including free accommodation, medical, and dental treatment, four meals a day, and their tot of rum, the selected pensioners will be paid at the following weekly consolidated rates, which are inclusive of badge-money, non-substantive and progressive pay:—

Chief Petty Officers 73/6
Petty Officers 60/1
Able Seamen 35/2

In addition, they will continue to draw the full pension to which they are entitled, and will receive the full active service marriage allowances, which were substantially raised last April.

CHILD ALLOWANCES

The present rates are: For a wife, 17s. a week; wife and one child, 22s. 6d.; wife and two children, 26s.; wife and three children, 28s.; wife and four children, 29s. 6d.; and 1s. a week extra for every additional child.

Although pensioners of every non-substantive rating are eligible for this service, those who held torpedo, or submarine detector rates should prove especially suitable. Majority of vacancies are able seamen, but others if they wish may re-engage in a lower rating than that previously held.

Those desiring further details should apply, in writing, to the Commodore, Royal Naval Barracks, Portsmouth; or if within easy reach of Portsmouth, Devonport, or Chatham, may apply in person at the office of the Commodore.

'£1,000 If You Wed A Jewess'

A young British visitor to Berlin was offered £1,000 in a Berlin cafe on August 22 if he would give a wealthy German Jewess British nationality by marrying her.

The man who made the offer told him that all he had to do was to go abroad with his "client" passing her off as his fiancée and then marry her outside Germany.

The £1,000 would be paid into a special bank account before the marriage and released immediately after the ceremony on condition that the young man would later divorce his wife.

The man is the agent of a large organisation which is on the black list of the Gestapo, German secret police.

FORGED PASSPORTS

The Gestapo claim that this organisation not only carries on this underground marriage business, but smuggles non-Aryans out of Germany and supplies them with forged foreign passports, mostly British and American.

This organisation has agents throughout Germany. Hamburg, Germany's North Sea port, is one of their chief centres.

LONDON ANSWERS HERR HITLER'S IMPLICATIONS

PERVERSION OF FACT
TAKEN AS DANGEROUS

LONDON, SEPTEMBER 14.

FURTHER CONSIDERATION IN LONDON OF HERR HITLER'S SPEECH APPEARS IN THE MAIN TO HAVE CONFIRMED THE FIRST IMPRESSIONS.

On one hand, it is true that the German Chancellor closed no door finally and indeed left the door for settlement ajar in so far as there was nothing in his speech which need have rendered impossible a continuation of negotiations between the Czechoslovak Government and Herr Henlein's Sudeten German Party.

The speech made no contribution to a removal of the menace that has caused and is causing European and the whole world such grave anxiety. It is not irrelevant that as an immediate sequel to the speech there were a series of incidents in Sudeten German areas of which the full consequences cannot yet be foreseen but which have obviously increased the dangers and must delay progress in negotiations.

One remarkable omission from the speech has been noted in London. Herr Hitler appeared wholly to have failed to appreciate or to have made due allowance for the attitude adopted by the British Government, which has not only acknowledged from the beginning the urgency of the problem and recognised in many respects the justice of Sudeten German grievances, but has acted upon that acknowledgment by almost an unremitting exercise of its influence.

HITLER'S IMPLICATION

Herr Hitler might be understood rather to have implied that the British Government, together with other democratic Powers, had tried to obstruct a settlement.

Such a perversion of plain fact, whether unconscious or deliberate reaches dangerous proportions in the British view.

Diplomatic history of the last few months contains a complete answer to Herr Hitler on this point. The British Government has not only recognised the urgency of the problem and sought to promote its peaceful solution but it has also recognised from the beginning that the inter-relation of forces involved in the situation in Central Europe is such that if resort were had to force in an attempt to solve the Sudeten problem the consequences would be quite immeasurable and that in such circumstances no one could predict the turn of events or foretell the manner, moment or form in which vital decisions might be forced upon the Government.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE

Repeated British pronouncements have emphasised how impossible it is to suppose that Great Britain could stand aside from a conflict in which the integrity of France might be menaced.—(British Wireless).

BRITON SHOT AT BUT ESCAPES

Prague, Sept. 14.

Mr. Sutton Pratt, an observer attached to the British Legation, narrowly escaped being shot, when visiting the Sudeten area yesterday.

He arrived at Eger while armoured cars were firing in the streets and he waved his cap to the officer in charge, whereupon the officer fired at him point-blank but missed.

Mr. Pratt thereupon went to police headquarters and procured a policeman and then approached the same car again with the officer, explaining to the officer that the firing must cease immediately. His orders were obeyed.—(Reuter).

8 CZECHS
4 SUDETENS
KILLED

London, Sept. 14.

Official casualties reported in Czechoslovakia up to midnight were eight Czechs and four Sudeten Germans dead, according to the Czech Minister in London.—(Reuter.)

YELLOW RIVER
BREACHED

Peiping, Sept. 14.

The Chinese have breached the right bank of the Yellow River 20 miles east of Tungkuang, where the Japanese are attempting to cut the railway between Chengchow and Sian, official Japanese reports allege.

The flood waters, flowing eastwards, are likely to hamper the Japanese attempts to cross the river from Shansi at a point a few miles east of the new breach. The military spokesman here states that Japanese reinforcements will continue to land at Tangku, and they are likely to continue unloading there for several days. He would not disclose the number of Japanese troops being rushed to North China.—(Reuter)

EVIDENCE GIVEN ON PALESTINE

London, Sept. 14.

The Palestine Partition Commission, in a private session yesterday, received Dr. J. H. Hertz, Chief Rabbi of the British Empire, Dr. Isaac Herzog, Chief Rabbi of the Holy Land, and Rabbi Meir Berlin, president of the World Mizrahi Organisation of Jerusalem, and took evidence from them on matters arising under the Commission's terms of reference.—(British Wireless).

CONTINUED EUROPEAN
UNREST FORESEEN

Leading Chinese papers in Hong Kong foresee a period of continued trouble bordering on war in Europe in their comments on Herr Hitler's Nuremberg speech, reports Central News.

The Shun Pao says that Hitler's speech reveals Germany's intention to encourage further dissension and friction among the peoples in Czechoslovakia so that she may reap the results without bloodshed. Referring to the part of the speech on Germany's military might, the journal says that this is merely another Fascist intimidation to the democratic countries. Such intimidation, it believes, is now useless in view of the preparedness on the part of France and Britain.

The Ta Kung Pao predicts that Hitler will encourage Herr Henlein, the Sudeten leader, to make more unscrupulous demands on the Czech Government and will incite the Hungarians living in Czechoslovakia also to demand autonomy.

The Sing Tao Jih Pao says that Herr Hitler's speech still leaves the world in doubt as to the real attitude of Germany towards Czechoslovakia.

The journal believes that war in Europe will be temporarily postponed but by no means avoided, if the Czech question remains unsettled.

Polish
Parliament
Dissolved

Warsaw, Sept. 14.

President Moscicki issued an enactment yesterday ordering the immediate dissolution of the Sejm and Senate. No date has yet been fixed for holding new elections.

The reason given for this action, which has taken the country completely by surprise, is that since the last general elections in 1935, important changes have occurred in Poland's domestic affairs and the need is felt of bringing the Houses of Parliament in accord with the present trend of public opinion.

CABINET MEETS

Immediately following the dissolution of Parliament, a meeting of the Polish Cabinet was summoned to discuss the new situation.

It was presided over by General Skladkowski, the Polish Premier.

According to the Polish constitution the new elections must take Upon receipt of the Japanese reply to the British protest regarding the banning from the mails of the Peiping and Tientsin Times, British-owned newspaper published in Tientsin, the British Embassy has renewed its protest.

The Japanese reply to the original protest said that a copy of the newspaper could be delivered to the British Embassy only.

It is learned that the Japanese military authorities ordered the ban on the British newspaper because of alleged subversive propaganda.—(Reuter).

PRETTY BRIDE AT ROSARY CHURCH

Mr. A.E. Ribeiro Weds
Miss Elsie Britto

RECEPTION AT RECREIO

The Club de Recreio was for the first time in many months again the scene of a reception yesterday, the "very-newly-weds" being Miss Elsie Aurora Britto and Mr. Antao Emmanuel Ribeiro.

Scene of the ceremony was the Rosary Church, the Rev. Father L. M. Rossi officiating.

Gowned in satin, satin trimmed with silver lace, was the pretty bride. Princess line cut and Juliet cap were the bride's choice for smartness. And ginger lilies, tuberoses, fern made up her bouquet.

Both bride and groom had sisters. Groom had one sister, bride had two. There can only be one Maid of Honour. On the groom's sister fell the choice. Clad in pink net, Miss Myrie Ribeiro was the Maid of Honour.

THE BRIDESMAIDS

The Misses Olga and Marie Britto were the two bridesmaids. They were in blue net, their bouquets were of gladioli.

Best man was Mr. C. M. da Silva, groomsmen were Mr. D. F. Lopes. The bride's mother Mrs. Lia Britto, was in navy blue lace. Little else can we tell you of the wedding, a little about bride and groom.

The Nederlandsch-Indisch Handelsbank was where the bride toiled away.

The Standard Vacuum Oil Company was where the groom toiled away. A Recreio socialite, friends say he plays both bridge and mah jongg, delights his opponents with occasional losing streaks. Another pastime—yesterday's groom is an ardent supporter of the Recreio baseball squad.

With the next sailing of the Rajputana, for a Shanghai-Japan cruise will leave two Hong Kong newlyweds.

Macao Society Staunchly Supports September Races

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

Macao, Sept. 12.

Glorious weather attended the September meeting of the Macao Race Club at Arela Peta on Sunday, which was well supported by local Portuguese and other foreign residents. H. E. the Governor of Macao, Dr. Artur Tamkinn de Sousa Barbosa, was an interested spectator, and was accompanied by his A.D.C. Lt. Costa.

The meeting was noticeably marked by the absence of Mr. F. J. Gellon, the popular Club chairman, who is in hospital at Hong Kong.

Macao race-goers were at the tracks long before the first saddling bell. Among the earlier arrivals were Brig-Gen. Temudo de Vera, the genial manager of the Banco Nacional Ultramarino, and his daughter, Miss Amalia de Vera. Brig-Gen. Temudo de Vera personally supervised the lottery draw for the South China Cup, and was later caught chatting with Mr. Jack Braga in the Judge's Box.

OTHER SPECTATORS

Consul for the Netherlands Mr. Henrique Nolasco sat with daughter Miss Amalia Nolasco in the stands and greeted friends who were arriving.

Lt. J. Montalvo e Silva and Dr. Cassiano Fonseca made a joint entry and conversed with others at the paddock.

Mr. Chas. Barnes, of Pan-American Airways, was accompanied by Mrs. Barnes. Along with them tagged little daughter Jenny, who is an ardent admirer of the "horses."

CUSTOMS ALLIANCE

"Pa" Mello local steamboat agent, promenaded on the lawn and held forth with various friends and acquaintances. Just before the third race he joined Customs Commissioner Mr. P. R. Bannister and Mrs. Bannister. Elsewhere the Chinese Maritime Customs at Lappa was represented by a strong alliance—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. P. Weston and Mr. G. Kirby.

Lt.-Col. A. Arez and Capt. Carlos Gorgulho, Police chiefs, were also prominent among the spectators early at the meeting. Later they joined His Excellency the Governor in the special box, from which His Excellency watched the races.

On the naval side, Capt. J. C. Coelho, Jr., commander of the recently-arrived Portuguese sloop, Goncalves Zere, was accompanied by some of his officers. They were later joined by Lt. Trinidad, of the Goncalo Velho.

BRITISH CADETS

Also in the limelight were the British cadets Mr. Colin Luscombe, Mr. E. B. Teesdale and Mr. E. S. Holmes. The latter two are newcomers to Macao, but were fast being introduced to other residents.

Mr. H. S. C. McComb, Waterworks engineer, and Mrs. McComb were being kept company by Mr. Brown, of the Macao reclamation scheme.

Postmaster-General Mr. Luciano Martins found many friends promenading on the lawn, while elsewhere were Mr. B. de Senna Fernandes and daughter, Miss Vera de Senna Fernandes, who were accompanied by Capt. Barbosa.

CAN YOU MAKE GOOD COFFEE?

GOOD coffee can be made in any pot, whether it is a dripolator, tricolator, slix, valve-type percolator, valveless percolator, or the old-fashioned pot or basin.

Automatically Fresh coffee of a fine blend and the right grind for the pot to be used, made in a clean and freshly scalded container, is essential for good coffee. To best retain the aroma, keep the coffee in a closed can when not in use.

Freshly drawn water should always be used and both the coffee and water should be measured to get the right strength. Never allow coffee to boil, as boiling develops bitterness and destroys both the flavour and the aroma. For the best flavour, coffee should be served as soon as it is made.

IF YOU ARE BLONDE
You can wear almost any colour or combination of colours, especially if you have good features. Avoid strong colour near the face, however, as this will rob you of your own delicate tints. Green, violet, purple and black are good colours for you, and at night you may wear any pastel shade or gold with good effect.

IF YOU ARE BRUNETTE
Dark colours are good, but are apt to look matronly unless relieved with a little paler colour, near the face. If you are warm tinted, wear blue or dark colours touched with a little rose colour. Brown little, rose colour, deep red, orange, yellow and brown will add to your charm, while if you are black haired, you will look your best in reds, yellows and oranges.

Amy Gets Divorce, Says 'It's Fine!'

Amy Johnson, the airwoman, was mentioned in two courts recently, her divorce decree from Jim Mollison was made absolute—and she was fined $5 at Worktop, Notts, for exceeding the speed limit when driving a car with a trailer.

It was an entirely new Amy who stepped into the sunshine from her Mayfair apartment, and denied the rumour of a romance between herself and a wealthy French nobleman.

'I'M FREE NOW'

"I heard the rumour ages ago. It seems to have originated in Paris, but I haven't been over there for at least a year," she said.

"And just as I was luxuriating the novelty of freedom this crops up."

"Well, I'm free now," she laughed. "It's fine—but I want breathing space. I've got an open mind on the subject of marriage after the last adventure."

Now Amy wants a job—work that means doing things.

Don't Under-Feed Your Baby

Saved $5,000 On Party, Gives It To China

Mr. Chew Kam-chuan, well-known banker, miner, planter and landed proprietor in Kuala Lumpur, who contributed large sums of money to the China Distress Relief Fund, Selangor, and sent several shipments of medical and surgical supplies to China for the relief of sufferers, has again donated a sum of $5,000 Chinese currency to the Fund.

This is a sum saved on a "House Warming" ceremony. Mr. Kam Chuan, recently built, a palatial house in Ampang Road, Kuala Lumpur. Many of his friends sent him presents and messages of congratulations.

It is customary among the Chinese people to hold a "House Warming" ceremony, on moving into a newly completed building and to give a dinner to relatives and friends who have sent presents.

Mr. Kam Chuan, having regard to the large numbers of refugees in China who are in urgent need of assistance, has decided not to hold any dinner party, but instead, donate the amount he would have spent on the dinner for the relief of distress in China.

Hence his handsome contribution of $5,000 mentioned above.

Newsletters

We learn that Mr. Gilbert A. Harriman has informed the Hong Kong Sharebrokers' Association, of which he is a member, that he will settle down in Canada. There was some talk, when Mr. Harriman left the Colony recently, that he might return to Hong Kong.

Capt. and Mrs. S. M. Kharegat are due to leave for India early in November. Capt. Kharegat, who is attached to the Indian Medical Service, has been in this station for about three years.

CHINA DISCOVERS HER WEST

AFTER A TWO-AND-A-HALF month trip through the south-west and western parts of China, Mr. A. Bland Calder, Assistant Commercial Attaché in Shanghai for the U.S. Government, stated in an interview recently that the world at large had no idea of the vastness of China's hinterland and the resources therein because even China herself, up to now, has hardly fully realised her own potentialities.

Mr. Calder said that a great deal of business usually associated with Shanghai has now been transferred to Hong Kong for the reason that while Shanghai is now cut off from almost every means of communication with the hinterland, Hong Kong is most favourably placed in this particular respect.

Thanks to our shipping and airways, we are only eight days from Washington and seven from London and there are signs that even this will be speeded up.

MR. CALDER WENT from Canton to Hankow by railway, flew from Hankow to Chungking, went by air to Chengtu and later to Kunming (Yunnan). He was a passenger on the first plane out of Kunming to Hong Kong, flew back to Hankow, and finally returned to Hong Kong and Shanghai, having flown over 4,000 miles and spending well over two months on a trip to study economic conditions.

One of the chief impressions he had received was of the vastness of this country, and another was of the great migration which was going on of people and industry from east and north China to the west and south.

This migration was bound to have a permanent effect upon the country, not only culturally but also economically. People of education, particularly those with technical training and concerned with education itself, were migrating out of eastern and northern China to more remote parts to engage in various activities connected with the national emergency and there was bound to be a permanent effect upon industry, and education in these territories.

The Western parts of China were being brought under direction and planning never known there before—technical, educational and agricultural.

There was bound to be greater unity between the people and there was even the possibility of an eventual common language, although that was problematical.

Mr. Calder spoke of the great province of Szechuan, which had been described to him as "an Empire within a State." The Chinese called it "Heaven's House" and it was that in the matter of self-sufficiency.

IT WAS LARGER THAN JAPAN Proper and nearly as big as Japan and Formosa put together,

MOTOR DRIVER FINED

Doctor Appears As Complainant

"He said he had perfect right to drive as he pleased. He emphasised his point by passing another car in front, travelling at about 45 miles per hour. It was near a corner," said Dr. Wan Ying-shing in the witness box yesterday before Mr. Butters at the Central Court when a public car driver was summoned for driving in a dangerous manner.

Dr. Wan was the complainant in the case. He was one of the passengers in defendant's car.

Dr. Wan told the Court that he engaged two cars from the Fai Hang Garage, No. 28, Des Voeux Road, Central on the night of August 2. The trip was to Repulse Bay. The party left his house shortly after 10 p.m. and he was sitting beside the driver, (defendant). As the car was going up Stubbs Road, he looked at the speedometer and it registered about 35 miles per hour. When the car had reached the top of the road, and was going down the incline, the speed increased to 40 miles per hour.

ASKED TO SLOW DOWN One of the passengers, a lady, who was sitting behind, got frightened and asked defendant to slow down. On hearing the lady's request, Dr. Wan also told the driver to slow down, but instead of doing so, defendant is alleged to have replied he had perfect right to drive as he pleased.

Defendant emphasised his point by passing another car in front, travelling at about 45 miles per hour. It was near a corner.

Dr. Wan continued to say that from the top of Stubbs Road to Repulse Bay the speed of the car was not below 40 miles per hour, except when rounding corners. It was quite dark at that time.

Witness remarked that he had done a fair amount of driving and the way the driver handled the car he considered dangerous.

DEFENDANT'S STORY

Defendant told an entirely different story in the witness box. He complained that Dr. Wan asked to take over the wheel, and upon his refusal, Dr. Wan scolded him. He did not travel more than 30 miles per hour when going down hill, and was doing about 20 miles per hour when going up Stubbs Road. He said that complainant had agreed to take a return journey, but dismissed the idea when the car reached complainant's home, because the fares were too high.

Li Pul, driver of the other car, told the Court that Dr. Wan refused to make the return trip when the car reached Repulse Bay.

Mr. Butters remarked that he would sooner believe Dr. Wan's account, than that of defendant, and imposed a fine of $50.

Mr. C. D'Almada appeared for the defence.

It was larger than the British Isles with Ireland thrown in; it was 85 per cent., as large as Germany without Austria.

It was said to have a population of 55 million people; but as there was no doubt a good deal of concealment in order to avoid taxation the population was probably about 60,000,000. That was about half the number of people in the United States.

Thirty-two per cent. of the province is under cultivation; and possibly 45 per cent. is capable of being brought into agricultural production. The provincial authorities are planning to place one million farmer refugees from east, central and north China upon the land and this can be done without any great difficulty as there is plenty of land available.

The province is protected by high mountains on three sides. The great central basin or plain is about 50 per cent. of the area of the province, and is covered with a rich alluvial deposit as the result of an irrigation system which was 2,000 years old.

It is one of the most densely populated farm areas of the world. There are big mineral resources and the list of agricultural products is almost endless. One of the principal exports is Chinese medicines and herbs.

It will be seen, therefore, that in Szechuan alone, China has a province rich enough to keep the country supplied with all her requirements for some time to come and yet the Japanese speech of exhausting China's supplies!

Hello & Goodbye

— BY A.W. HYER —

THE WIND she does blow herself these days, we pulled out, the sea anchor and hitched ourselves down waiting for all those boats listed for arrival. You know, the China Clipper due on the 14th, but not coming in until the 21st, the Imperial Airways due the 13th, but not arriving until this a.m. and low-and-behold Air France did not show up the 14th, coming in this noon. Well! we are still dragging anchor and awaiting.

To, them that boats have been galloping up and down the waves but making little headway, due to wind and tide.

Anyway it's cool in Hong Kong and some of the travel packets did make the grade.

TAKING FIVE days to pack herself, the Dollar's "Cleveland" waddled herself out of the harbour, about 3 a.m. Wednesday (no—we were not there).

However, one of the esteemed Doctors of the Colony was sleeping his best aboard this boat as she sailed bound for Japan and San Francisco. Dr. H. Talbot in the firm of Black and Bales, goes a-vacationing. This will be his first visit to the States which he crosses before heading home to England.

We hope you will not be disappointed and the best of holidays to you.

Gertrude Maerck

ALL ABOARD for Shanghai, Japan and United States—Time: Sunday p.m. and truly Aloah-to-Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Shank and the black spaniel hound, Los Angeles is their destination, and future residing territory.

These well-known Colonyites connected with Blackmore, Basto and Shank, Ltd., architects, will certainly be leaving a hollow in the social and business life of Hong Kong. We certainly hope you will like the land of oranges, sunshine and palm trees, but hope, too, that you will come a-calling in the next year.

Silverwalnut

NOW, THERE IS a ship for you. Clean and spotless, delightful cabins, they say very good chow, and oh! very, very nice officers on this m.v. Silverwalnut which tied long side Tuesday, 2.30 p.m. in from Manila, Shanghai and the United States.

This silver, white, and blue beauty carries only twelve passengers and one of these was Mrs. W. F. G. Harris, returning from a Shanghai visit.

Mr. Harris, Number 2 in the Furness Line Office, here, was a smiling welcome to his pretty brunette wife who exchanged greetings from ship's deck to pier. Hope the visit was a pleasant one and we are glad to see you back.

A round-the-worlder on this freighter is Miss G. Quackenbush and it is all holidaying. (We are seething with envy). This young lady is a registered nurse who decided to take a geography lesson in the true sense of the word. "We are sure you will enjoy your five days visit in the Colony and know the trip will continue to be one of the "bestest!"

S.S. Islami

BACK FROM SAIGON and the southern ports came the S.S. Islami bringing Mr. A. J. Rozario, Manager of Linotype and Machinery, Ltd., from a business and pleasure trip.

Glad to see you back home, hope the business is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Reimer, two other passengers on this packet, will stop by for a short visit before journeying back to Canton.

By the time "all the coolies in China" had boarded the ship—we were bringing up in the rear, our customers had pulled the vanishing act. Therefore, a hello to you all!

S.S. Rajputana

WE WOULD CALL a 6 a.m. arrival "A sneak in," and that is about what the P. & O.'s "Rajputana" did when she parked herself at the pier early Wednesday a.m. We did arrive on the scene to witness the end of the "welcome ceremony" given the Indian Officers and Medical men who arrived on their way to give their assistance to the Chinese in the North. Many activities have been planned for the short stay of these gentlemen and trust all will be very merry and gay.

Two instructors of learning arrived back in the Colony via the "Rajputana." Prof. M. H. Roffey and Prof. F. A. Redmond, Vacation days are over and back to pupils, books and classes at the Hong Kong University. Glad to have you home!

Empress of Japan

OH MY, OH MY! What a lovely ship and how she can strut down the bay to her berth at Pier 1. It was Wednesday, 10.40 a.m. we were admiring the arrival of the "Empress" in from Manila.

School bells, teachers, ponderous study books all that for Mr. I. Carrero, of Manila, arriving to attend St. Joseph's College.

While wishing him all sorts of good luck in the coming semester, he informed us "December 4 would see him homeward for Christmas holidays." Now, that rings familiar, I think we used to do that, count the days before, holidays.

All for business but enjoying the trip and glad to be back was Mr. R. R. Roxburgh, Manager of John I. Thornycroft & Co., Ltd., who returned on the Empress of Japan from Manila.

Days of pleasure, relaxation and fun are in store for Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Lai and Master W. Lai, residents of Manila.

A short visit in the Colony, Macao and surrounding territory they plan before going back to the job of managing the Cosmo Club in the south. Business is not so good, and not so bad, in the tropical port according to Mr. Lai, who intends to get away from it all for awhile. Have a good time!

En masse arrived Mr. J. Pearne and his family from a southern holiday in Manila. Waves, shouts, laughter and much jumping up and down were greetings from this delightful family to the friends on the pier.

They all appeared very healthy and wise, therefore the trip and visit must have been a perfect one.

INDIAN MEDICAL MISSION ARRIVES

On Way To The War Areas

The Indian Medical Mission to China, comprising Dr. M. M. Atal, the leader, Dr. M. B. Chokler, Dr. D. Mukherjee, Dr. D. N. Kothlis and Dr. Basu, arrived in Hong Kong by the S.S. Rajputana yesterday on their way to the China war zones.

The Mission was greeted at the Kowloon Wharf by a large group of prominent Chinese and Indians and representatives of various public organisations, including Dr. C. Y. Wu, representing the National Red Cross Association and the Chinese Medical Association. Mr. Tam Yip-fong, representing the Kwangtung Provincial Government, Mr. Y. Aika, member of the Legislative Yuan and Councilor of the Military Affairs Commission.

LEADER'S STATEMENT Dr. Atal, upon his arrival, issued the following statement to the press:

"The logic of history has once more brought the two nations of the East—the Chinese and the Indian—together. There is, and always has been, much in common between us. Our outlook on life and our psychological make-up is somewhat similar. The points of contact are therefore numerous. Let us, therefore, come closer together, and help each other in the solution of problems that lie before us. We cannot afford to ignore each other any longer, except at our peril.

"The brave Chinese people are at present engaged in a life and death struggle against a relentless and ruthless enemy. Let us help them to roll back the invading hordes of barbarians who have converted their fair land to shambles. Once this menace is over we shall sit down together to solve the other important questions affecting us. And I have no doubt that our combined wisdom will find solutions not only for problems peculiar to our respective countries, but for problems facing the whole world.

I therefore ask my countrymen all over the world—ask every decent-minded man, woman and child all the world over to help our Chinese friends in their supreme hour of trial.

"May they be victorious! is the earnest prayer that goes forth from the heart of every countryman of mine." (Central News).

LUNCHEON TO BE GIVEN

duties of the inhabitants in case of air alarms and air attack. The posters bring in the headlines the words of Field Marshal Goerring, "Those who take part in air raid precautions have the same responsibility and same honour as every soldier in the trenches." (Transocean).

HITLER DECLARATION

Berlin, Sept. 14. The report published today by French papers that the frontier between Germany and Czechoslovakia has been closed is denied by a semi-official German news agency which likewise denies rumours of the imminent forthcoming declaration on the Czechoslovak problem by Chancellor Hitler. Informed quarters state that such a declaration is not to be expected on Wednesday. (Transocean).

CABINET MEETING

London, Sept. 14. The only absentee at this morning's meeting of the Cabinet was Lord Stanley, Dominions Secretary, who is still in Canada. The meeting deliberated on the latest developments in the international situation and had before them a report of yesterday's conference in which the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, a number of colleagues and Chiefs-of-Staff participated. (Reuter).

LABOUR TO MEET

CALM PREVAILS

Prague, Sept. 14. Calm at present prevails in the Sudeten regions and no serious disorders were reported during the night. Official reports from all districts where a state of emergency was proclaimed show that the measures taken have checked disorders.

At one place in the frontier where Sudetens occupied the Customs house, State police expelled them with tear gas.

Although there has been no mobilisation of the Army, some reservists were called up for special exercises and more special gendarmes were sent today from Prague to Carlsbad, headquarters of the province in which the affected districts are situated. (Reuter).

SUDETEN HEADQUARTERS LEAVE PRAGUE

Prague, Sept. 14. The Sudeten headquarters in Prague was liquidated last night and all the staff advised to leave the city and given 1,000 crowns each, equivalent to £7 10s. All Sudeten newspapers here have ceased publication.

PASSAGE FOR TROOPS

Reported Soviet-Rumania Agreement

Geneva, Sept. 14. There is every reason to believe that the Soviet and the Rumanian representatives here have reached an agreement for the passage of Soviet troops across Rumania in the event of a German attack on Czechoslovakia. It is reported that the Soviet will be allowed a corridor five miles wide. (Reuter).

At Walsdorf a body of five hundred Sudetens rushed to Germany past the Customs post.

It is announced that Herr Henlein has withdrawn the mandates of Sudeten negotiators and this is believed to signify that Henlein will deal personally with all future developments.

There has been considerable animation in the streets of Prague and the people are laying in stores of food and some are buying gas masks. (Reuter).

U. S. S. NASHVILLE MAKES HURRIED DEPARTURE

London, Sept. 14. The United States cruiser Nashville sailed from Portland for Gravesend after the crew who were on shore leave were hurriedly rounded up. The vessel was due to leave on September 15 and the reason for the earlier departure is not disclosed.

The American Embassy states that orders for the Nashville to go to Gravesend came from Washington. (Reuter).

NEW GRAF ZEPPELIN

Berlin, Sept. 14. The new air ship, Graf Zeppelin, left Friedrichshafen and flew over Lake Constance for her first trials with seventy-four aboard including officers of the Air Ministry.

The Zeppelin is commanded by Dr. Eckener who named it by breaking a bottle of liquid air on her bows. (Reuter).

FUNERAL OF HERR PAPPENBERGER

The funeral of Herr Heinz Pappenberger, the German canoeist, who died suddenly on Monday, at the Queen Mary Hospital, took place yesterday at the Roman Catholic Cemetery. The Rev. Fr. U. Gablatti officiated at the graveside.

Herr Arthur Gelewsky, representing the German Consulate General, and Herr M. Hess were present. Wreaths were sent by Herr A. Gelewsky and Herr Otto Neidt.

Ultimatum To Prague Rejected By Cabinet

SERIOUS INCIDENT AT FALKENAU

Prague, September 14. Sudeten German headquarters declared last night that the famous eight points of Herr Konrad Henlein's speech at Carlsbad, which hitherto embodied the Sudeten demands, could no longer form the basis of negotiations. The reason given was that the situation had gone too far. The Sudetens are now declared to be so excited that they will be satisfied with nothing less than a plebiscite. It is rumoured that Herr Henlein may see the President, Dr. Benes, tomorrow.

At 5 p.m. yesterday the Sudeten leaders gave the Government an ultimatum of six hours to withdraw all exceptional measures introduced in the Sudeten districts, otherwise they would decline responsibility for the consequences.

Sudeten Demands

The following communique was issued from Sudeten headquarters:—

"The Government had pledged itself to discuss with the Sudetens any important step which it might take in connection with the situation. Although our leaders were in Prague in the morning, the Government did not consult them about such important measures as the proclamation of martial law in certain districts. There have been numerous incidents in which Sudetens have been assaulted or killed and a situation of grave tension now prevails."

The ultimatum delivered telegraphically to the Premier, Dr. Hodza, and signed by Herr Frank and Herr Kundt, Sudeten deputies in Parliament, contained the following points:—

1. Immediate removal of martial law
2. Immediate withdrawal of the state police from all districts where there is a German majority, the police duties to be handed to the municipal councillors in those districts who will be responsible for the maintenance of order.
3. The gendarmes and all other organs to be reduced to normal duties.
4. All military formation must be confined to barracks and kept removed from the civilian population.

ULTIMATUM POINTS

After a two-hour meeting, the Cabinet last night sent a reply to the Sudetens. It is learned that the Sudeten demands were not accepted but that the reply did not close the door to further negotiations. It is not expected that the text of the reply will be published.

Czech Reply

After a two-hour meeting, the Cabinet last night sent a reply to the Sudetens. It is learned that the Sudeten demands were not accepted but that the reply did not close the door to further negotiations. It is not expected that the text of the reply will be published.

After the Cabinet meeting, Dr. Hodza conferred with Sir Basil Newton and M. Delacourx the British and French Ministers.

The Sudeten German newspaper Die Zeit has suspended publication on account of the censorship. The Sudeten news bulletin, the Pressebrief, also suspended publication for the same reason.

GENDARMES KILLED

Another serious incident occurred yesterday at Falkenau, where three gendarmes were killed by shots fired by Sudeten Germans.

It is reported from Carlsbad that the roads are blocked by heavy traffic caused by the exodus of Jewish and Czech refugees.

The German population at Carlsbad is wearing the swastika sign of the Nazis and greeting each other with "Heil Hitler!"

A number of telephone lines connecting the capital with the interior have been cut. (Reuter).

Negotiations Ended

London, Sept. 14. The Czech Minister in London, M. Jan Masaryk, informed Reuter last night, that Herr Henlein, the Sudeten leader, had, through his secretary, notified the Czech Premier, Dr. Hodza, that further negotiations were not possible in the circumstances.

At the same time, Herr Henlein expressed his thanks and appreciation to the people who had so far led the negotiations, and mentioned Dr. Kundt and Dr. Sobekovsky by name. (Reuter).

London, Sept. 14. According to responsible Czech quarters in London, the Sudeten ultimatum was unacceptable as the situation demands the presence of extra police.

It is pointed out that the emergency measures in no way extend to the military but simply give the police extra powers. (Reuter).

Paris Feels War Near

Paris, Sept. 14. There is a feeling in Paris that war is nearer than at any time since 1914.

A certain amount of relief, created by the Hitler speech, was dispelled by developments.

The Sudeten ultimatum has caused a deep impression here. It is considered that it would be a definite derogation of sovereignty for Czechoslovakia to agree to the demand for a plebiscite or accede to the ultimatum.

It is also thought that the Sudeten would not take such a decision without Hitler's approval, and it is taken for granted that France would stand by the Prague Government.

ONE SOURCE OF HOPE

It is felt that the one source of hope is if Lord Runciman can be given the full support of the British Government he might be able to effect a last moment compromise between the opposing forces.

The French Government has decided to prohibit for the time being all public meetings and demonstrations in connection with the international situation. (Reuter).

COMMENTS FROM THE CHINESE PRESS

Medical Aid For War Fronts

There has been a unanimous appeal from the war fronts that medicine is lacking on the various fronts and the wounded soldiers relief organisations are not well organised.

Now our friends from the British India have even been so enthusiastic as to bring medicines, sent medical doctors to China to offer services despite the great distance. We think that the Chinese people themselves should organise many more Red Cross units for the fronts and easier still, to donate medical supplies. The latter is especially more convenient for the overseas Chinese to do the purchasing.

We hope that the overseas Chinese will unite in their efforts particularly in donating money for the purchase of medical supplies. (Takungpao).

FINANCIAL EXPLOITATION BY JAPANESE IN SHANGHAI

The following story is told about the Japanese financial exploitation in Shanghai after their domination of the Northern port.

Traitors and peddlers are sent to various towns and districts by the Japanese to collect scrap iron to be transported to Japan.

Food commodities are gathered by predatory means mostly in the Japanese occupied area through the puppets and traitors to prevent food scarcity in Japan.

Japanese goods are put in the market at the expense of foreign and native goods.

The Japanese have taken over all the Chinese factories, and goods from the foreign factories cannot be transported outside of Shanghai.

Usually Shanghai imports most of her sugar from the Netherlands territories. With the increasing smuggling of sugar from Japan, Dutch sugar has sustained a heavy blow. Sugar dealers are reported to have established a Dutch Sugar Bureau to take united action in checking the anomaly. (Takungpao).

MILITARY LIBRARIES

The Chief of the Political Division of the Fourth Route Army, Mr. Li Hsu-huan, with a view to eliminating illiteracy among the soldiers, has decided to organise classes for soldiers and libraries are to be established for every regiment, brigade division, etc. (Takungpao).

FUKIEN RECONSTRUCTION

It was learned from the Head of the Fukien Province Reconstruction Department, on his return from a tour round the Fukien province, that the Department has made out a plan for provincial reconstruction. For the improvement of transportation $1,000,000 have been set aside by the Department to repair the highways and bridges.

At the beginning of this month the Fukien Transportation Company was established with a South China Tourist Bureau attached to it. The overseas Chinese and the public are encouraged to invest their capital in the various enterprises. Other construction works, such as the opening of mines, are already under way. (Takungpao).

Lin Sen Peace Suggestion Ridiculed By Spokesman

Chungking, September 14.

Commenting on the repeated reports in a Japanese-controlled Chinese newspaper, alleging that President Lin Sen had entertained the opinion that "Hankow's fall would mark the fall of the Government" and that "final victory was impossible for China," a spokesman of the Chinese Government issued a statement today, ridiculing the suggestions.

"For sheer nonsense and purposeful fabrication, this attempt at mud-slinging probably will find no equal," says the statement. "To allege that the chief of the State, who enjoys the respect of every citizen whatever his party affiliation, has expressed an opinion so contrary to his every known statement and action shows that the fabricators of such obvious lies are at the end of their tether."

WISH FOR A FACT
"Such differences of opinion and of action, as usually exist between the Gaimusho and the Japanese Army and then between the old guard and the younger officers in China. It is usually dangerous to infer the existence of similar conditions in other countries from what one finds at home. The makers of the latest piece of falsification have again mistaken their wish for a fact. (Central News).

REHABILITATION FROM WAR'S

KOO TO DEMAND APPLICATION OF ARTICLE 17

Geneva, Sept. 14. It is expected that Dr. Wellington Koo will make a speech on China at tomorrow's Assembly and demand the application of Article 17 to the Sino-Japanese conflict.

Chinese circles state that the Chinese delegation are having a difficult time in preventing the Sino-Japanese issue from being relegated to a position of secondary importance as all interest and attention is centred on Czechoslovakia. (Reuter).

SMALL TRANSACTIONS ON STOCK EXCHANGE

London, Sept. 14. Owing to the depressing nature of the overnight news the London Stock Exchange opened this morning with the dealers adopting the usual measures for widening and lowering of quotations.

At the same time no difficulty was experienced in arranging small transactions.

Glit edged securities show initial losses of 14 to 2 points while foreign bonds are stagnant there being no attempt to deal.

At the present there is little local activity though advance selling is being encountered from the continent. (Reuter).

EFFECTS WILL NOT BE SLOW IN CHINA

Hankow, September 14. Despite the horrible destruction and devastation brought on by the Japanese invaders, there is every reason to believe that the livelihood of the Chinese will be rehabilitated one year after the conclusion of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

This is the opinion of Father V. Lobbe, of the Ankwo (Hopen) Prefecture, a naturalised Chinese citizen of Belgian birth, who arrived here recently from the Shansi front at the summons of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Well-known by his Chinese name Lei Ming-yan, Father Lobbe has served as a captain in the 12th Division of the 3rd Army directing medical work since the outbreak of the Lukouchiao Incident.

For 14 months Father Lobbe has been service in Paoting, Niangtz-kwan, Hungtung and south Shansi. His tireless efforts have won the praise of the

SPORTING NEWS AND NOTES

Lawn Bowls:

PORTUGAL FAVOURED FOR INTERNATIONAL

But Scotland Expected To Put Up Good Fight

By B.R. Swiller

The Happy Valley Lawn Bowls competition is drawing to a close. Craigenower are the hot favourites, having disposed of two strong rivals in the Police and the Civil Servants. Though they have not yet won the Vat 69 Whisky Cup, their position is practically unassailable, as they have only to beat the weak Hong Kong Football Club team, who have yet to win a match, to have possession of the Cup. Should they lose, however, to the Football Club this Saturday they will have to have a replay against the winners of the Police-Civil Service match.

On the Hong Kong Football Club green last Saturday, Craigenower registered a convincing win over the Civil Servants, scoring 111 shots to their opponents' 61. All the rinks were successful. C.S. Rossie and his men showed excellent form and with the help of a seven on the 11th head, beat G.H. Sherriff's rink by 22 shots. Another seven was scored in the course of the game, the honour going to J. Hollidge who, in spite of it, lost to B.W. Bradbury by a single shot.

Incidentally, all bowlers will be pleased to see that Bradbury has recovered from his elbow trouble and has returned to the rink. His semi-final match against A.R. Dallas has been keenly anticipated. In the other match in the competition for the Vat 69 Cup the Police beat the Hong Kong Football Club on the Craigenower green by 29 shots. All the Police skins were successful.

ELEVEN IN SEVEN!

The results of the two semi-final matches in the Gutterrex International Shield competition were as anticipated. Portugal eliminated Wales in a surprisingly easy fashion, scoring 24 shots to the latter's 12. Though Wales (W. Mulcahy, W.L. Lockhart, C. Cavanagh and W. Field) took the lead early, they failed to maintain the form they showed in the beginning and allowed Portugal's representatives (J.A. Luz, R.F. Luz, C.G. Silva and F.X. Silva) to score eleven shots on seven heads, after leading by 11-9 on the 13th head. Wales scored a single on the last head.

I see that there were two changes in the Portuguese rink. J.A. Luz came back into the team after his absence from the International match against India the Sunday before in which L.F. Xavier efficiently deputised for him and H.A. Alves place was taken by R.F. Luz. I haven't yet been able to ascertain why Alves could not play. Perhaps he was indisposed.

CHINA'S GALLANT FIGHT

If Scotland, G.W. Watson, J. Gellatly, J. McKelvie and R. Duncan had anticipated that their path would be strewn with roses in their match against China (whose representatives were H.Y. Hsu, T.R. Lam, C.W. Lam and J. Pau), they must have had a rude awakening. China put up such a gallant fight that they were not only holding Scotland, but on quite a few occasions in the course of the game, the boot was quite on the other foot and it was only extreme bad luck on the last head that robbed them of victory.

The best player on view for Scotland that afternoon on the Civil Service green was J. Gellatly, the No. 2. He was drawing extremely well and with the exception of a few heads was never far away from the pack. McKelvie and R. Duncan though inconsistent were most useful when the occasion demanded. Watson played below form.

That China were able to offer Scotland such a stiff resistance was mainly due to the fine display put up by Hsu and Lam, their lead and number two. The former, particularly, played extremely well and his first wood very often in the course of the game was near the jack, but for some mysterious reason he was invariably short with his second, even though Pau asked him to put it at the back. C.W. Lam and J. Pau were weak and were inclined to be narrow. If one of them had played as well as Hsu or Lam, they might have been able to make Scotland bite the dust.

CHINA STEALS LEAD

Scotland scored six shots on the first three heads, but China took ten shots on the next five consecutive heads to lead by 10-6. A three on the 11th head saw the score at 13-8 in China's favour. Thirteen, as others have found it, proved an unlucky number for China; they got stuck at it for the next five heads, during which Scotland, with the aid of a five on the 12th head, scored 13 shots to lead by 21-13 on the 18th head. But China came back strongly to score seven shots on the next four heads, to be only one shot behind. On the last head, China were lying two when McKelvie drew first shot. Pau drove with his first wood with the intention of either removing McKelvie's first shot or forcing the jack back where he had several woods. He got the wood square, but it was extremely unlucky for him that the wood also took the jack along with it.

The match was most exciting. Had Pau played a more consistent game, or had he more experience, he might have turned the scales in China's favour. On the 14th head, when he went down to roll, he had four shots, but instead of trying to prevent Duncan from smashing up the woods, he drew for another shot. R. Duncan came in heavy, split up the woods and took the jack back for a count of two in his favour. Pau failed to save. Lack of experience alone was responsible for the loss not only of four shots, but possible victory for China.

THE FINAL

On Sunday Portugal and Scotland will meet in the final of the International Shield competition. Many had anticipated an England-Portugal final, but the withdrawal of B.W. Bradbury, the skip, from the team on account of some trouble to his elbow, weakened it considerably. They lost to Scotland by one shot.

With regard to the match Portugal have a better team, I think, and consequently should win. The fact that they disposed of Wales in such an easy manner makes them the favourites for the championship.

Scotland, on the other hand, had had close shaves in both their matches. Admittedly England, whom they beat by a shot, had quite a good team, but China had a team drawn from Third Division players. The fact that China could put up such a fine performance against Scotland and nearly beat them, makes it very doubtful if the latter (Scotland) will have the better of Portugal.

Baseball Notes

SEASON'S END

BY R. O. Y.

Baseball fans were treated to a brilliant display of pitching in the final game of the season when the Americans, on Sunday, defeated the Hong Kong All Stars by five runs to nil. Owing to rain, the game was called at the end of the sixth inning, but it is extremely doubtful if the local nine could have staged a rally even if the game had gone the full distance.

Mike Mulligan, hurling for the winners, had the game well in hand right from the start allowing the opposition only two hits and striking out twelve batters thus almost equalling Dick Shim's local record of 14 strikeouts in a seven innings game chalked up against the Japanese Baseball Club, in 1936.

Mulligan so varied his deliveries that not one of the opposing hitters was able to get set, but dazzling speed with perfect control was the keynote of his work; it is interesting to note that five of his team mates did not get a single fielding chance.

Outstanding at bat were Lacroix, Donovan and Cunneen who connected safely twice apiece to account for six of their team's seven hits. The local squad was, once again, not at full strength. Wong and C. H. Lo, Hong Kong's premier battery being absent. Perreira, however, went very well on the mound and did not deserve to have five runs chalked up against him, fielding errors allowing several unearned runs. C. S. Chung and Nip Lum had the honour of getting hits and the latter as usual, ran wild on the sacks, to get away with three stolen bases.

The Hong Kong Baseball League will be holding their presentation night at a Chinese dinner this Saturday, when the Bagram Shield will be presented to the Chinese Baseball Club. Team managers are requested to notify the Hon. Secretary of the names of their players attending the dinner, by Friday morning.

SOFTBALL

The closing date for entries in the Hong Kong Softball League, is September 25, 1938, and clubs intending to enter teams are requested to send their entries to Roy Lau, Hon. Secretary, before that date.

TSUI BROTHERS GET THROUGH

H.D. Rumjahn Loses Hardcourt Match

Three quarter-final matches in the Colony Hardcourt Tennis Championships well played off at the United Services Recreation Club yesterday.

Tsui Wai-pul, Colony champion, had a rather easy passage over H. D. Rumjahn, winning in two straight sets, 6-4, 6-2.

Feature of the match was the brilliant placing of Tsui and his fine stroke-play. Rumjahn led off well and won the first two games. Winning the next three in a row, Tsui led 3-2. Rumjahn pulled up. Tsui surged ahead and Rumjahn pulled up again, 4-4.

Tsui played too well. The first set won at 6-4, he led 5-0 in the second. Rumjahn tried hard. He took the next two games, but Tsui won 6-2.

S. A. Rumjahn defeated A. E. P. Guest, 6-2, 7-5. Long rallies and careful play served Guest well as he took five games off Rumjahn in the second set.

Younger brother Tsui Yun-pul lost four games to S. A. Gray, easily advancing into the semi-final round with a 6-1, 6-3 victory.

The doubles encounter E. C. Fincher and A. V. Remedios against G. Choa and O. Rumjahn was postponed.

TOM PARKER'S MIDDLE NAME IS MODESTY

It was a pleasure to meet such a modest manager as Mr. Tom Parker, of Southampton.

While other managers enlarge their ground and will hear of nothing else but promotion, Tom Parker, last year, actually decreased the capacity of The Dell.

Those class visiting teams who come crashing down at The Dell will no longer be able to blame the ground. For years The Dell has heard the death-knell of potential promotion candidates.

Ask Sheffield United, who would have been in the First Division this season had they got even one point at The Dell in the last game of last season.

The "excuse" has always been that the touch-lines and goal-lines have been bang up against the fences, and wingers have been scared of injury.

In order to remove this cause for complaint, Tom Parker commandeered a few feet of the terracing all round the ground.

He thereby decreased the holding capacity of the ground, by at least a thousand. However, The Dell holds thirty thousand. That

CRICKET TRIAL MATCH

On I.R.C. Ground

Weather permitting, there will be an Interport trial on Saturday, September 17 on the I.R.C. ground at 2 p.m.

The following teams have been selected:

MR. A. C. I. BOWKER'S XI:—A. C. I. Bowker, L. D. Kilbee, I. H. E. Leekie, A. C. Beck, D. J. N. Anderson, E. C. Fincher, R. Lee, N. A. E. Mackay, A. R. Minu, Capt. Whitmarsh, C. M. M. Man, C. E. Godby.

MR. H. OWEN HUGHES XI:—H. Owen Hughes, T. A. Pearce, H. D. Bidwell, N. D. Lloyd, W. Colledge, M. P. Weedon, K. Nazarin, A. R. Kitchell, A. H. Madar, L. T. Ride, L. D. McKellap, I/S Tynnell.

The Club ground has been entirely returned and is not yet ready for play, and the I.R.C. have kindly lent their ground for the practice.

WHAT ABOUT SOUZA?

By "L.B.W."

It would appear that Bowker's team is the potential Interport side with perhaps one or two alterations but I must confess I am somewhat disappointed to find George Souza, the promising young Craigenower Cricket Club all-rounder has not been given a trial.

It may be that his name has not been sent in by his Club. This also applies to P. J. Billimoria (left hand bowler), A. R. H. Esmail, a very useful all-rounder and an uncommonly useful bat as his last year's figures show, and A. K. Ismail, all of the Happy Valley club, and also A. M. Rodrigues of the Reclero.

Billimoria and Esmail both did extremely well for the Craigenower Cricket Club; who were joint champions with the I.R.C., last year and I should have thought that with so many of our tried warriors unable to make the trip this would have been an excellent opportunity for the Selection Committee to build up a future Interport side.

A fellow scribe, in a contemporary, says that unless we can send a team that can at least give Shanghai a good fight it is no use having an Interport at all. I disagree.

A match like the one scheduled for next month would be first class practice for our younger blood and I hope that as many of them as possible will be given a chance to show what they can do. I am sure they will not prove too disappointing.

is quite enough for ordinary matches.

As a matter of fact, even if Southampton, reputed the First Division, is now impossible to large the ground.

The Largest
Diesel Electric
LinerGERMAN SHIP
FOR SOUTH
AMERICAN TRADE

The new Diesel-electric liner Patria, a stream-lined vessel of 15,000 tons gross, belonging to the Hamburg-America Line, arrived off Cowes recently from Hamburg and Antwerp, and after mails had been put on board she proceeded on her maiden voyage to Kingston, Jamaica, and then through the Panama Canal to the west coast of South America, says The Times.

At Valparaiso she is to remain a few days before starting on the return voyage to Hamburg, during which numerous calls will be made. By invitation of Messrs. Wm. H. Muller and Co., the London passenger agents, a party of visitors inspected the ship. They were welcomed on board by Herr A. Marquardt, director of the Hamburg-America Line, who is to introduce the vessel to the various countries which she is to serve, and by Captain Vieweg, the commander of the ship.

The guests were received in "La Plaza," around which are the offices of the purser, the consulting room of the doctor, and several shops, including hair-dressing saloons for men and women. The Plaza is open, like a general market place, to the passengers in both the first and second classes, each of which has accommodation for 175 persons.

The Patria was stated to have a full passenger list and to be promised one for the homeward passage also. Turning forward from this business and shopping centre through wrought iron gates the visitors passed within the precincts of the "Club Pacifico," which the first-class quarters are termed. "La Galeria" was the first hall to be admired, and then "El Patio," in the style of a Spanish courtyard, commanded attention.

It is distinguished by a fountain in a marble centre, surrounded by a thick red carpet, woven on the model of one in the Palace of Würzburg. This carpet appeared in unexpected parts of the ship like a theme running through her. Pieces were even to be found on the floors of the crew's rooms, which, together with their spacious dining saloon, appeared remarkably similar to the accommodation provided for passengers in many liners.

ZUM HOTEL HAMBURG
Large full-length windows indicated that the vessel is intended for routes where fresh air and breezes will be especially welcome. For decoration reliance has been placed largely on many light woods and the blending of soft colours.

Turning from the Plaza towards the stern of the ship the direction "Zum Hotel Hamburg" pointed the way to the tourist accommodation, which has various attractively furnished public rooms and a "St. Pauli Bar," which is calculated to remind many travellers of the City of Hamburg.

Portions of the specially guarded, playrooms equipped with numerous toys, and dining rooms with small chairs and tables are allotted to children in each section, and although no attempt was made to count the numbers of small travellers good use was being made of the playrooms.

Owing to circumstances, the tour of the ship had to be rapid, but time was found for a short halt in one of the restaurants where toasts were duly honoured, including one to the continuance of happy relationships between Germany and Great Britain.

A large framed photograph was a reminder that Herr Hitler, together with Admiral Horthy, visited Helligoland last week in the Patria.

The ship is variously described as the principal German passenger and cargo vessel in the service with the west coast of South America, as the largest Diesel-electric ship in the world, and as the ship without a propeller, tunnel power is transmitted electrically through two cable tunnels to two motors at, which in turn drive the twin propellers. The engines are designed to give the ship an average speed

ENGINEERING
GREAT BRITAIN

Considerable interest is always displayed in new applications of the photocell.

Yet there is often a tendency to overlook the importance of the industrialist of the many everyday uses of such apparatus, particularly in the field of mechanical handling.

For most industrial purposes, the photocell apparatus involves nothing more complicated than a single valve amplifier. More over a modern unit such as that now marketed by the General Electric Co., Ltd., of England, has the merit of being adaptable for either A.C. or D.C. mains, on either of which it will operate equally well.

COUNTING BY PHOTOELECTRIC
CELL

The photoelectric method of counting has many advantages, where the goods handled are of varying shapes and sizes and are too light in weight to operate a contact positively, or are too delicate or easily soiled to operate a contact mechanically.

Not only can the photoelectric method record the total in a specified time, but it can also be used to indicate when a certain number of articles, say, a score or a gross, have passed the detecting point by the addition of a simple impulsing relay.

By suitably arranging the position of the light source, some degree of selective counting is possible; only objects that exceed certain linear dimensions can be counted, according to the position of the light relative to the objects concerned.

A PROBLEM SOLVED

In a conveyor used for handling crates of bottles a case occurred recently where, owing to the layout of the building, a very sharp bend in the conveyor had to be introduced.

PROBLEM OF CONVICTS
WHO WRITE

Rules Under Review

Sir Samuel Hoare, the Home
Secretary, and the Prison Commissioners have been considering the problem of authorship in prison.

Convicts may write in their cells,
but cannot bring out their manuscripts when released, without the approval of the Home Office.

One standpoint is that the public might object if a convict, supported out of public funds, used his time to write for profit and competed with those earning their living by writing.

There is, on the other hand, much to be said in favour of allowing a man to cultivate his creative instincts. It is believed that the regulations work well on the whole and that few manuscripts of worth fail to emerge from prison.

At this point, during periods of heavy traffic, the crates would tend occasionally to ride up on one another and cause a blockage.

This would sometimes occur at night, when the staff was reduced, and considerable time was wasted in freeing jammed crates.

The problem was overcome by the use of a photoelectric equipment, the light source of which was arranged just to clear the top of the crates during normal working.

When a block occurred at the bend, the light beam was interrupted, and the conveyor motor

POLICEMEN SENT TO PRISON

WHAT CIRCUMSTANCES?

I am asking you what circumstances. Do you mean to say in all circumstances it is a binding order?—No, because I have seen McLeod make out an order and then change his mind and ask me to go to another district. When you are dealing with McLeod you are not dealing with a man who sticks to his decision and makes up his mind at once. His mind is as changeable as the weather.

So you are protecting McLeod. Having heard your superior officers say that by going to Yau-mat instead of Kowloon City was incalculable you still persist in saying you were entitled to go there?—As far as McLeod and I are concerned, I was.

You knew when you went to Yau-mat that you were doing something which if the Commissioner gets to know about it you would get into trouble?—Yes.

And you took the risk?—Yes. But you knew perfectly well that if you made an arrest there you would invite the inevitable consequences, namely disciplinary action?—Yes.

CUTTING OWN THROAT

Therefore by going there you were really cutting your own throat?—How could that be, because then McLeod would alter his morning report if I made an arrest.

Do you mean to say that there is really of no importance in what McLeod told you to do?—Yes.

You are inviting the Jury to say that McLeod is a liar?—Yes. Can you tell me of any incident before this that would entitle everyone to say that he is not a perfectly honest person?—Up to then we got on very well together, but I would have thought that he would at least have that common decency of every human being—that little principle expected of every person—when he sees the position I am in today by admitting his own blunder. If he had admitted having falsified the report he would be fined a few dollars, perhaps, but instead he chose to let me stand here. He has not that principle, I am sorry to say.

A ROUGH DIARY
But you yourself made a blunder by making an entry that you had been to Kowloon City?—Yes, but I never regarded that duty book as official. I always regarded it as a rough diary.

Further questioned, Telfer admitted having asked on two occasions Inspector Wong So to transfer the third and fourth accused to the Emergency Unit but added that they asked him to do so.

Coming to the incident in Temple Street on May 9, Mr. Whyatt asked: Do you suggest that the way you deployed your men was the way of "blocking" streets?—That was my way of doing it.

Is it not contrary to rules to split up search pickets? I thought it was quite right.

The rules laid down state that, as far as possible, searchers should form a semi-circle round the suspects, pickets must not be split up.—That is only if the suspects are carrying arms.

Then you have constantly broken these rules?—Yes, all along.

Patriots on Japanese patrol work, I understand, should not act as search parties. Did you not read those orders?—I was allowed to read the orders once. I just glanced at them. Sergeant McLeod showed them to me.

LOCKED IN DRAWER
These instructions from Superintendent Calthrop were posted in the order file, were they not?—Sergeant McLeod locked them up in a drawer. I thought they were secret documents.

However, having read the orders you knew that you were breaking the rules by conducting a search when detailed to Japanese patrol work?—I suppose I was.

There is no supposing. It is quite obvious that you were?—I suppose I was over-zealous. I suppose it was a result of my being anxious to get a case.

You have heard your Counsel suggest that the mah jongg schools are running a perfectly proper business without contravening the law?—I agree.

There is no suggestion that the men have been in trouble with the police before?—No.

You are asking the jury to come to the conclusion that those men are all liars?—That is correct.

That so far from you conspiring to extort money they have conspired to frame you?—Exactly, sir.

The only reason why those witnesses conspired to frame you was because you interfered with—

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT OPENING SHOOT OF RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Lieut. A. O. Pullman Wins Net Spoon

The Hong Kong Rifle Association held its first meeting of the season yesterday on the Kowloon City Ranges. This Opening Shoot was marked by a good attendance and good shooting in spite of adverse weather conditions.

The Royal Scots and The Middlesex Regiment sending between them about seventy members, and amongst whom were many new members.

The weather conditions yesterday were, on the whole, bad. At times there were showers, and during the whole afternoon the wind was exceedingly tricky.

Major G. P. Murray, the Honorary Secretary, was present on the Ranges the whole afternoon and took part in the shooting. We are fortunate in having a Honorary Secretary who not only takes a great interest in the individual members but who is also keen on the actual shooting itself.

During the period when the Association closed down as regards the actual shooting, he has been renewing handicaps and arranging programmes in order to give yet more enjoyment and interest to every member.

It is hoped, and not vainly, that this season will witness yet more broken records than in past seasons. Judging by yesterday's shoot, the Association is assured of yet a greater membership than last year and higher honours gained.

GIFT OF CLOCK

We cannot close without mentioning the great debt of gratitude we owe to past and present members of the Dock-Rifle Club for their gift of a Clock for the outside of the Clubhouse. This clock can be seen from all Ranges and is invaluable to all members using the ranges.

The season having just commenced, the Association is looking out for likely members, who will, in December, represent the Colony of Hong Kong in the Inter-Colonial Postal Match; two Teams for which will be chosen, one Team firing S.R. (a), the Rifle "as issued"—and the other firing S.R. (b).

DAY WITHOUT CHOLERA

For the first time in many months the health returns for Tuesday showed a gratifying absence of cholera cases, but eight cases of dysentery and three cases of enteric fever were reported.

Since the beginning of the year, a total of 420 cases of cholera have been registered.

DELIA ARRIVING TODAY

The Imperial Airways plane Delia, which left Bangkok yesterday at 11.30 a.m., made an overnight stop at Hanoi and is now expected to reach Kai Tak between 10 and 11 a.m. today.

The Air France plane, which was due yesterday, was delayed by bad weather and will arrive at the tomorrows entering the school?—One of the witnesses, Shek So, is a brother of the clansman of the principal detective in the Yau-mat Police Station. He has no doubt been instructed what to say by other witnesses. It is all premeditated.

"BIGGEST LIAR OF ALL"
In further cross-examination, Telfer stated that Sergeant McLeod was the biggest liar of all, although they had once been very friendly.

After Mr. Whyatt had addressed the jury, Mr. D'Almada told the jury that they had to decide whether the charges brought against the defendants (charges of a very grave and serious nature) had been satisfactorily brought home against them.

Counsel said that Sergeant McLeod had made an entry in the duty book before he should have done. The defence, said Counsel, was that the case was a "frame-up". Furthermore, continued counsel, would Telfer choose such a place as Temple Street, which was very near to Yau-mat Police Station to collect money?

"Gentlemen, the defence is that the whole story is a fabrication," declared Mr. D'Almada submitting that the Crown's case had failed.

At the conclusion of the case, the Lordship exempted the jury from further service for a period of three years.

During the interviews, Mrs. Chao reported on the present conditions of the Chinese guerrillas in North China.

As an encouragement, General Wu has donated $5,000 to help the guerrillas.—(Central News).
